

ACE WOMEN'S Network™ Michigan

Opportunities for You to Get Involved

Women New to Michigan American Council on Education (ACE) Women's Network . . .

- Higher education faculty and staff members should:
 - ✓ Attend the MI-ACE annual two-day conference
 - ✓ Attend the MI-ACE annual conference dinner
 - ✓ Attend the MI-ACE Women of Color Fall Networking Luncheon
 - ✓ Volunteer to serve on a MI-ACE committee
- College students should attend:
 - ✓ Young Women Strong Leaders (YWSL) conference

Women Familiar with MI-ACE and Seeking More Involvement . . .

- Volunteer to be an Institutional Representative (IR) for your college/university
- Submit a presentation proposal for the annual conference
- Participate in the MI-ACE Women of Color Collaborative
- Volunteer to serve on a MI-ACE committee
- Organize a professional development workshop or session on your campus under the MI-ACE name to recruit new members and build the network among women on your campus.
- Submit to your president a draft nomination for a deserving woman leader on your campus as a possible nominee for the MI-ACE Distinguished Woman Leader Award.

Experienced MI-ACE Executive Board Member . . .

- If you want to expand your leadership role at the state and national levels, ask the board to nominate you as the State Chair
- Volunteer to serve on the MI-ACE Speakers and Consultants Bureau

There is a place for YOU in the MI-ACE Women's Network

Please contact the Professional Development Committee at: marthagrier1@gmail.com

www.miacenetwork.org